Whereas, I, V. V. Giri, President of India, have received a report from the Governor of the State of West Bengal and after considering the report and other information received by me, I am satisfied that a situation has arisen in which the Government of that State cannot be carried on in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of India (hereinafter referred to as "the Constitution"):

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by article 356 of the Constitution and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby proclaim that I—so much of the proviso to article 3 as relates to the reference by the President of such Bill as is referred to therein, to the Legislature of the State;

so much of clause (2) of article 151 as relates to the laying before the Legislature of the State of the report submitted to the Governor by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India; articles 163 and 164;

so much of clause (3) of article 166 as relates to the allocation among the Ministers of the business of the Government of the State; article 167;

so much of clause (i) of article 169 as relates to the passing of a resolution by the Legislative Assembly of the State; clause (1) of article 174; articles 175, 176 and 177; clause (c) of article 179 and the first proviso thereto; article 181; articles 188, 189, 193, 194, 196 and 198; articles 208 to 211 (both inclusive); the proviso to clause (1) and the proviso to clause (3) of article 213; and so much of clause (2) of article 323 as relates to the laying of the report with a memorandum before the Legislature of the State;

(iii) any reference in the Constitution to the Governor shall, in relation to the said State, be construed as a reference to the President, and any reference therein to the Legislature of the State or the Houses thereof shall, in so far as it relates to the functions and powers thereof, be construed, unless the context otherwise requires, as a reference to Parliament, and, in particular, the reference in article 213 to the Governor and to the Legislature of the State or the Houses thereof, shall be construed as references to the President and to Parliament or to the Houses thereof respectively;

Provided that nothing herein shall affect the provisions of article 153, articles 155 to 159 (both inclusive), article 299 and article 361 and paragraphs 1 to 4 (both inclusive), of the Second Schedule or prevent the President from acting under sub-clause (i) of this clause to such extent as he thinks fit through the Governor of the said State;
